But she doesn't know that one of them stays the same while the other turns into the true love's form. After they had sex, Fiona turns into an ogress unexpectedly. When her TF finished, she accepted being an ogress and married Shrek happily ever after.

Digimon Tamers: Rika Nonaka into Lady Devimon (AP/Corruption)

There is an episode in Tamers, where Rika gets kidnapped by Ice Devimon, who believes himself to be her ideal digimon partner, due to her overall dismissive and coldhearted nature. In this version of the story however, he would instead seek to turn her into his ideal mate, using some form of dark magic to turn her into a Lady Devimon resembling an adult version of Rika, followed by inevitable, sexual intercourse. After that is said and done with, she then readies herself to fight her former friends.

Roaming wolves

A story about two wild hunters finding each other in the woods where the man has become a werewolf in a previous encounter with the mythical creature and his girl looking for revenge for the “death” of her lover

P 1 Introduction of the Main character looking for some kind of revenge for some kind of monster, preparing herself with gear and tools (light huntress armor and crossbow with arrows)

P 2 The character starts to remember the yesterday day when her lover “sacrifice” himself to let his girl escape against the werewolf where this creature achieves to defeat both of them, the scene takes place on a full moon night in the woods. The huntress succeeded to escape but not before seeing an act where the werewolf gives him a deep mark on his chest with its claws. She watches the scene weeping and swearing revenge

P 3 The memories ends and the huntress gets ready to carry out her revenge on the same night and seeks to settle in the same forest where the events occurred.

P 4 The night Falls and she begins to head in the same place where the first werewolf appeared, listening to the sounds and footsteps of the other animals roaming in the darkness of the night

P 5 When she finally hears a sound in the bushes, she prepares her crossbow and points it in the direction of the sound where she is seen holding on and sweating of a possible battle collapse

P 6 on the next page it’s revealed that it was only a cute small deer, and the huntress just sighs at the encounter and murmurs dialogues where she mentions the cares that could be done to it with the support of her lover, while a beast-hunting gaze is shown to us in a point of view when he’s looking at the back of the huntress looking at the deer.

P 7 Suddenly and without warning the new werewolf jumps and scratches the huntress back where she turns around and without falling to the ground looks at the feral beast and comes face to face with the werewolf that hurts her back, the deer ran away at this moment.

P 8 The werewolf with his mark on his chest turns into a hunter’s face to depressed face as he realizes who it was the person he had just hurt, murmurs “Katherine...” with a sad face to the huntress and runs off into the darkness

P 9 The huntress confused and agonizing from the scratch pain begins to wander and trying to get back to a safe place when suddenly the first effects of the transformation are beginning to take place, the calling of the moon and the head spinning

(I don't have any knowledge about the tf sequences, I'm just giving a personal example so it can be a 7-page sequence TF with the hallucinations to make space for the rest of the pages in a final scene where both characters end in a one-page epilogue.)

P 10 The tearing of the clothes begins to show and the arms and back starts to transform in a more werewolf tone developing fur, the huntress starts to fight the transformation

P 11 The abs start to show some muscles with the arms and the breast starts to grow, the huntress is still fighting the tf with shock.

P 12 The lower body starts to change ripping the lower body clothes and growing muscles in the legs and forming werewolf feet. The huntress feels the transformation and the gaze of some beast watching

P 13 The butt expands and makes an incredible werewolf tail when this happen all the clothes are gone and the face it's the only one missing

P 14 Before the Face starts to make its final form, the Huntress starts to have visions of the previous werewolf seeking for a human woman named Katherine in the dark of the night, roaming and rejecting the desires of hurting other people but failing at seeing the figure of a human woman looking at a small deer.

P 15 At the end of this visions Katherine (the name of the huntress) shouts into the night the name of Angel crying with teary eyes: "Angel (Name of the man) come to me" while the ears and the fangs are developing and the werewolf hear this and stops hiding in the bushes to present itself to Katherine

P 16 Katherine finish her TF with the final face form of a werewolf and a full look of her wolf form is showed in a box.

(FINAL scene)

P 17 Angel says at this: "I finally find you" and the new werewolves begin to embrace each other licking and kissing each other having a response from Katherine saying: I miss you so much, and the scene continues in the next 2 pages

P 18 Angel with his chest mark grabs Katherine in a missionary position and starts to mating with her in a werewolf lovely way when he keeps kissing and licking Katherine while in other box they mate in the doggy style.

P 19 And after cumming both of them howl to the night and make it clear that they will be a couple in their wildest state.

P 20 In a final page where both werewolves are standing, covering each other's backs, they tell each other that they will both look for a way to get rid of the wolf that caused their curses and they'll not be afraid to use their fiercest side in order to achieve their goal, and finish their curse.

Minor details:

I would like to see the wolf marks in both Angel's Chest and Katherine's back in their final art design

The design of the environment it's like the medieval style where no technologies and modern structures have been built

The design of Angel could be a regular brunette man with brown hair, muscular complexion in his human form, the werewolf form can be a more muscular oriented werewolf with grey fur

The design for Katherine could be a white woman with black hair with an athletic complex at the human form ending with a werewolf marked complexion but not so developed like Angel form, finishing with black fur covering her form. (took idea from Premonition comic but without the red hair and the fur color)

The werewolf who attacked both in the first place can be an average man werewolf with grey or yellow tone.

10) TF Idea N° 72: sd102

Rachel is transformed into a female metal insect fiend by Doku.

Rachel's fiend blood was awakened by doku,

With the slow entry of evil forces, the fiend hunter is slowly becoming her former prey.

i.postimg.cc/90hrLYy1/R-S-2.jpg 《-----Creative concept map

I hope her insect fiend looks like this.

She will have three toes, two in the front and one in the back, with insect-like claws on them.

The two legs are covered by metal carapace, and a sharp short angle extends from the knee;

The crotch becomes a metal carapace, but I want to keep her pubic hair and vagina;

The waist becomes a bee waist, which is also covered with a metal carapace;

The breasts are enlarged and metal shelled.

She will have four arms and a short horn on the elbow like the knee.

There are only three fingers on the palm, and there are sharp worm claws on them.

Like the rest of the body, they have metal carapace.

There are four dragonfly wings behind her.

And there will be a scorpion-like tail protruding above the buttocks, with a venomous stinger at the end.

There is an insect antenna on her forehead,

The original blue eyes were replaced by insect-like blood red compound eyes,

The beautiful nose disappeared, and the insect's face wiped it away.

The sexy and beautiful lips have disappeared, and they have been turned into the terrifying mouthparts of insects.

A pair of huge pliers-like jaws protruded from there, and there were two downwardly curved antennae on either side.

Some of her blonde hair is properly reserved, but not all.

PS: I think she can still maintain a female profile.

Roughly the plot of the story
