She took his hand and smiled, gazing into his eyes. The moment could not be more perfect. The sun's warmth bathed them as a soft breeze stirred, creating goosebumps on their skin and making them more aware of their naked bodies. A low cloud drifted between them tickling their bellies...

She put her hand on his abs and danced her fingers softly down towards his groin. Pulling him closer she whispered in his ear, "Do you know how big I've made us grow?"

"We are pretty big..." he said, a little unsure of how to answer.

A quizzical, amused expression flashed across her face for an instant before she grabbed his cock firmly and began to stroke it. Keeping hold she started to lay down onto the landscape, pulling him with her. Clouds of dust rose whenever their bodies touched the earth, and huge cracks appeared in the ground. She positioned him and he entered her slowly. She gasped quietly, closing her eyes.

"Do you realise that we are reforming the land as we make love?"

He tried to ignore the question. She was really hot.

"oooo... Do you realise that this hillsides and valleys were created over millions of years by the actions of water?... ahhhh... that this stone was the bed of an ancient seaaa... uhhh... that was compressed by huge forcnesszzz oooooohhhhhh and that we are reforming this landscape with our bodies as we make lovvvvv mmmmmhhhhh..."

He kept pumping. "Shhhh"

"I'm miles tall... I'm so bigggg... unnhhh... My tits can crush cities... ah ah ah ah..."

"Please stop. You're really hot but this is distracting." He kept pumping.

"I am a god, all the tiny people will cwwww before meeeee Uggghhhnnnn..." She broke off panting, bathed in the afterglow of her climax. That was fast. All her fantasies had come true.

However maybe this guy wasn't the best playmate to have chosen. He didn't seem to get it. He was looking at her strangely. She grinned. She didn't give a fuck.
