OPERATION ID: GORGON

BPS-2021-04

NATURE: THREAT ASSESSMENT

25 February 2021

LETHAL FORCE: AUTHORIZED IF NECESSARY

PERSONNEL:

8th Advanced Response Division, codename Coyote (Operational Leads - Primary Entry Team - Pathfinder)

Trevor Cui, Manhattan Incident Support Unit (Operational Support - Outer Cordon - Warden)

Dr. Patrick Chen, 25th Curatorial Rapid Salvage Team (Operational Support)

Dr. Claire Burton, 25th Curatorial Rapid Salvage Team (Operational Support)

Dr. Vivian Mason, 25th Curatorial Rapid Salvage Team (Operational Support)

SITUATION:

A sinkhole has rapidly formed inside of the United States Postal Service building (Chinatown Station 10013) at 6 Doyers St. Multiple casualties reported inside the building. Reports of a human completely covered in long hair emerging from the sinkhole.

MISSION / EXECUTION:

Task Organization: Per Director Kraznik's instructions, The Manhattan Incident Support Unit has been deployed to run civilian interference at the following intersections to provide short-range containment: 1) Doyers and Bowery and 2) Doyers and Pell. The 25th Curatorial Rapid Salvage Team are on standby in an unmarked vehicle parked facing east at the intersection of Division and Bowery.

Task Summary: Quick reaction force required. Recce the post office, identify and assess any anomalous activity, and secure the premises for Curatorial operational support team. Any civilians on-site are to be secured. Paranatural entities are to be contained or neutralized in accordance with the BPS ROE. Small arms only due to close proximity to civilians.

Purpose: Paranatural activity in such close proximity to the NYC Haven Node presents a high-level threat to BPS security.

End State: If anomalous activity is identified, ensure that the site is secure and provide Curators with a 3 hour window to document, study, and contain the threat. If not, exfil and RTB via the NYC Haven Node.

SERVICE SUPPORT:

In collaboration with the NYPD and the DSNY, a one block radius has been cleared (reported as a sewage leak). Power has also been cut to the block. NYPD asset is Lieutenant Lukas Winters - BPS knowledge is limited.

RISKS/CONCERNS:

Extreme caution is recommended when approaching the site. Unknown number of paranatural entities. Reports of noxious smells on-site, full-face PPE recommended.
