- -This map was conceived as a recently abandoned haunted house, but could be used as the home of someone with a dark secret.
- -The secret rooms on the first floor and in the cellar were intentionally drawn unfurnished to allow DMs more flexibility in the kind of story they can tell with this map.
- -Some possibilities for the contents of the secret rooms may include:
  - -Demonic shrine
  - -Freaky torture dungeon
  - -Laboratory for unethical/non-peerreviewed magic or science
  - -Sacrificial altar
  - -Kidnapped people
  - -Information
  - -Huge fat stacks of cash
  - -Ancient secrets
  - -Mountains of pornography

- -The house's residents may not be aware that the secret chambers exist. in this case, the PCs might be hired to investigate strange occurences at the manor.
- -If the manor is abandoned, perhaps the secret chambers contain the cause.
- -The unroofed atrium could be a way for the PCs to stealthily gain access to the manor.
- -The conservatory might be a good place to insert that plant monster you've been meaning to use.
